

For emergencies, phone 112. Tell the ambulance which hospital to take you to.

- Our members use many different private hospitals, including Sanador, Regina Maria (including Euroclinic hospital), Medcover and others. In an emergency, make sure you go to the hospital, not a smaller clinic. (Note that sometimes patients are sent from a private hospital to the State hospital.)
- Our members comment that the main emergency hospitals have excellent doctors, though the facilities and other staff may not be at the level you are accustomed to. (Note that sometimes you might have to go to a private pharmacy to purchase medicine recommended by a doctor at the public hospital.)
